Under applicable law, bar association or law society rules or other rules or regulations of the jurisdiction in which the Foreign Entity is located (“Applicable Rules”), a corporation, association or other entity located in that jurisdiction whose purpose is, or includes, the provision of legal services (a “Law Firm”):

(A) is not permitted to grant equity interest or voting rights to non-lawyers<sup>1</sup>.

The relevant Applicable Rules are:

Accordingly, no equity interest or voting rights are currently granted by the Foreign Entity to such non-lawyers.

→ Go to Section 4

<sup>1</sup> Non-lawyers as defined in Article 11-2, Item 1 of the JFBA’s Basic Rules for Duties of Gaikokuho-jimu-bengoshi, i.e., those who are neither bengoshi nor foreign lawyers. The same applies elsewhere in this Certificate.

- (B) is permitted (subject to obtaining the requisite licenses, permits, etc.<sup>2</sup>) to grant equity interest or voting rights to non-lawyers who are not engaged in the services<sup>3</sup> of the Law Firm.

The relevant Applicable Rules are:

Part 5 of Legal Services Act 2007

Furthermore, a Law Firm is permitted (subject to obtaining the requisite licenses, permits, etc.<sup>2</sup>) to grant equity interest or voting rights to non-lawyers who are engaged in the services of the Law Firm up to 50% or more.

The relevant Applicable Rules are:

Section 89 Legal Services Act 2007

→ Go to Sub-section (2)

- (C) is not permitted to grant equity interest or voting rights to non-lawyers who are not engaged in the services of the Law Firm.

The relevant Applicable Rules are:

However, a Law Firm is permitted (subject to obtaining the requisite licenses, permits, etc.<sup>2</sup>) to grant equity interest or voting rights to non-lawyers who are engaged in the services of the Law Firm up to _____%.

The relevant Applicable Rules are:

→ If the percentage is less than 50%, go to Section 4; if 50% or more, go to Sub-section (3)
