

Grand Design of International Strategy

2019 version

July 18, 2019

Japan Federation of Bar Associations

Table of Contents

- 1 Objectives and characteristics of Grand Design
- 2 Overview of the international activities of the JFBA in accordance with the fundamental purposes of the Mission Statement
  - 2-1 Overview of the activities involved in realization of public interest, human rights and the rule of law
    - 2-1-1 International human rights activities
    - 2-1-2 International cooperation activities (International legal support activities)
  - 2-2 Overview of the activities involved in the roles of attorneys and bar associations
  - 2-3 Activities to reinforce the structure which can provide legal service responding to various legal needs in society
    - 2-3-1 Promotion of international services by attorneys
    - 2-3-2 Legal support for overseas business by small and medium-sized companies
  - 2-4 Human resource development/public relations as a common challenge
    - 2-4-1 Human resource development
      - 2-4-1-1 Support system for members willing to work in the international field
      - 2-4-1-2 Career support activities for international public services
    - 2-4-2 Public relations activities
      - 2-4-2-1 Dissemination of information to overseas
      - 2-4-2-2 Public relations within the JFBA for the JFBA's international activities
- 3 Issues and approaches to achieve the fundamental purposes of the Mission Statement
  - 3-1 Issues and approaches of the activities related to the realization of public interest, human rights and the rule of law
    - 3-1-1 International human rights activities
      - 3-1-1-1 Realization of international human rights norms in Japan
      - 3-1-1-2 Overcoming human rights issues in Japan
      - 3-1-1-3 Handling human rights issues abroad
      - 3-1-1-4 Handling of Congress 2020
    - 3-1-2 International cooperation activities (International legal support activities)

3-2 Issues of and approaches to activities related to the roles of attorneys and bar associations

3-2-1 Objectives and contribution of the achievements of international exchange activities

3-2-2 Fulfillment of the content of international exchange activities and strategic study of the organizations to have amicable agreements considering the objectives of international exchange

3-2-3 Improvement of the presence in the international bar

3-2-4 Consolidation of the systems of the JFBA

3-2-5 Internationalization of local cities

3-2-6 Active involvement in international rulemaking

3-2-7 Respect for diversity and pursuit of gender equality

3-3 Issues and approaches of activities to reinforce the system which can provide legal services in response to various legal needs in society

3-3-1 Necessity of consolidating the judicial system in response to internationalization of the juridical issues (Realization of activities for legislative proposals related with the Japanese judicial system and procedures which can handle international legal services)

3-3-1-1 Various schemes for the promotion of international arbitration and ADRs in Japan

3-3-1-2 Study for consolidation and development of the system regarding the collection of evidence and information

3-3-1-3 Legislating the system regarding the protection of confidentiality of communications between attorney and client

3-3-1-4 Appointment of foreign lawyers to the mediation committee and other activities

3-3-2 Public relations and dissemination of information regarding the Japanese judicial system

3-3-3 Handling of individual or corporate matters resulted from globalization (inbound/outbound)

3-3-3-1 Approaches to improve the access to justice in various matters such as international family issues, or matters on procedures relating to foreigners entering into or residing in Japan

3-3-3-2 Improvement of support for internationalization including overseas expansion by small and medium-sized companies

3-3-3-3 Support for Japanese attorneys to execute judicial operations overseas

3-3-3-4 Networking the related international organizations and attorneys for improvement of international operation and reinforcement of the capabilities of attorneys

3-4 Human resource development and public relations activities as a common challenge

3-4-1 Issues and approaches of human resource development

3-4-1-1 Development of human resources who can play an active part in the international field

3-4-1-2 Support for developing careers in the field of international public service

3-4-2 Issues of and approaches to public relations activities

3-4-2-1 Provision of information overseas

3-4-2-2 Internal public relations of international activities within the JFBA