

Edmund Bon

Edmund Bon is a practising lawyer in Malaysia for more than 25 years. He co-founded AmerBON, Advocates and two non-profit organisations, Malaysian Centre for Constitutionalism & Human Rights (MCCHR) and Collective of Applied Law & Legal Realism (CALR). He works with international organisation, companies and civil society groups on business-related human rights matters. He previously represented Malaysia on the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights (AICHR) for 3 years. He recently led a team of experts to conclude a 8-month study on Malaysia's business and human rights landscape for the government of Malaysia. This national baseline assessment report is due to be published in the end of 2023.