

[Jirim Kim, Attorney at law, GongGam Human Rights Law Foundation]

Jirim Kim is an attorney at law. She has been working as full-time public interest lawyer at GongGam Human Rights Law Foundation since 2017.

As a member of Korean Refugee Network, Rainbow Refugee Network and as a deputy chair of Legal Aid and Advocacy Working Group of the Asia Pacific Refugee Rights Network (APRRN), she is participating vigorously in improving refugee's status in Korea by representing them in Court and doing various comparative law researches.

She also focuses on migrant's right by representing victims of racist policy and state violation. (Human rights violation in the immigration detention center, the compulsory HIV test to migrants, etc.)