

Shreya Rastogi

Director, Death Penalty Litigation, Project 39A, National Law University Delhi

Shreya Rastogi is the Founding Member and Director of Death Penalty Litigation & Forensics at Project 39A, National Law University in New Delhi, India. Project 39A is a criminal justice initiative working on issues relating to the death penalty, forensics, mental health and criminal justice, prevention of torture, and legal aid. Shreya heads the Death Penalty Litigation team at Project 39A, which provides pro bono legal representation to prisoners sentenced to death before the Indian Supreme Court and various High Courts. She also heads the work on forensics, which aims to promote the use of valid and reliable science within the criminal justice system.