

Dr. Loganathan Krishnan

Dr. Loganathan Krishnan obtained his Bachelor of Laws (Hons) i.e. LL.B (Hons) from the University of London. He pursued a Master of Laws i.e. LL.M at the University of Malaya. He then obtained Postgraduate Certificate in Higher Education from the Curtin University of Technology. He obtained his Doctorate in Law i.e. Ph.D at the University of Malaya. He is a guest lecturer at Sussex University, School of Law, Politics & Sociology, University of Tunku Abdul Rahman, and Taylor's University.

Dr. Loganathan has presented his research findings at national and international conferences. He has also published papers in various scholarly, refereed, indexed double-blinded journals. He has also published book chapters published by Routledge and De Gruyter. His research expertise is in the area of Constitutional Law. He has supervised research projects for undergraduate and postgraduate students. He has received several research grants including the FRGS from the Ministry of Higher Education which he is currently involved regarding the aboriginal community. He is also a paper reviewer for several journals and an Editorial Board Member of the Australasian Journal of Law, Ethics and Governance. He has served as an external examiner for LL.M and Ph.D for Universiti Utara Malaysia and the University of Malaya.

Dr. Loganathan Krishnan is a council member of ASEAN Law Association of Malaysia and Australasian Law Academics Association, Member of Constitutional and Human Rights Committee, LAWASIA and Deputy General Secretary of the Educational, Welfare and Research Foundation.

His publications are as follows:

JOURNAL ARTICLES

DESCRIPTION OF ARTICLE (AUTHOR(S), TITLE, NAME OF JOURNAL / VOL/NO/PG NO, YEAR)	NAME OF PUBLISHER
Krishnan, L. "The Shifting Sands of Judicial Minds in Relation to Article 8 of the Federal Constitution" Current Law Journal , 5, 1 (2005).	Current Law Journal

Krishnan, L. "Is Restorative Justice the Solution for the Land Grievances Among The Indigenous People of Malaysia?", International Islamic University Malaysia Law Journal, 14(2), 221 (2006).	IIUM
Krishnan, L. "Correcting Legal Rights in Socio-Economic Development of the Aboriginal Community", The Law Review, 231 (2007).	Sweet & Maxwell Asia
Krishnan, L. "Partnership in Action as a Mechanism in Addressing the Land Grievances of the Aboriginal Community", The Law Review, 272 (2011).	Sweet & Maxwell
Krishnan, L. "Traditional Environment Versus Modernised Environment: A Case of Malaysia", Asian Law Journal 1(1), 1 (2011).	Asian Law Journal