

Mami ISHIDA

Ms. Mami ISHIDA is an attorney-at-law in Japan.

She works on issues related to the protection of children's rights,

She has been a school lawyer in Hyogo Prefecture. She has worked on cases involving the acquisition of Japanese citizenship by foreign children born out of wedlock.

She also handles cases involving refugees and asylum seekers in Japan and cases involving foreigners.

She is a member of the International Human Rights Committee and a Secretary general of the Working Group on International Human Rights Conventions of the Japan Federation of Bar Associations (JFBA).

She is a facilitator of Japan Lawyers Network for Refugees.

She is a board member of Human Rights Now and is responsible for the Myanmar project of HRN.