

The 14th United Nations Congress
on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Towards Abolition of Capital Punishment: Global Efforts to End Capital Punishment and Challenges Confronting Asia-Pacific Region

Organized by : Japan Federation of Bar Associations (JFBA)

Co-organized by : Union Internationale des Avocats (UIA), Australian Embassy Tokyo

Sponsored by : Delegation of the European Union to Japan

This event will introduce international and national efforts to abolish the death penalty including those of the JFBA, UIA and the governments of the EU and Australia. In doing so, it aims to examine the challenges confronting each countries and the way towards abolishing the capital punishment.

Date, Time, Venue

Wednesday, 10 March 9.00am – 10.30am
CONFERENCE ROOM C-2

Speakers

Mr. Julian McMahon

(Senior Counsel in Melbourne, Former President of Capital Punishment Justice Project)

Mr. Maxime Delhomme

(Union Internationale des Avocats Special Delegate for the 14th Crime Congress, Former President of the UIA Criminal Law commission)

Mr. Yuji Ogawara

(Chief Secretary, Central Board on Abolition of the Death Penalty and Reform of the Relevant Penal System, JFBA)

In addition to the speakers listed above, a speaker from the Delegation of the European Union to Japan will appear on the panel.